NOW on this 14th day of December, 1976, this matter came on for hearing before the Court. The Petitioner is present and represented by her attorney, Glen A. Murray. The Respondent is not present nor represented by counsel. The Petitioner testifies as to the jurisdictional facts, extent of property, birth of one child. that the parties have been separated since March, 1975, and that the marriage is irretrievably broken. 3. That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and of the subject matter of this action; that Petitioner is not a party to any other pending action for divorce, separation, or dissolution of marriage.

4. That every reasonable effort for reconciliation has been made, without success, and that the marriage is irretrievably broken and the same should be dissolved.

5. That the parties are owners of various items of real and personal property which should be awarded to the party now in possession.

6. That there has been born as issue of this marriage, one child, Keith Dale Granstrom, born October 8, 1958.

8. That the Respondent should have reasonable rights of visitation.

9. That the costs of this action should be taxed to the Respondent.
