

7

That Einar H. Benson, named executor in such will, was duly appointed as executor and on said date duly qualified as such executor.

The Court finds that due and legal notice has been given by law provided to all persons of the time and place fixed for filing claims against this said estate and that such time has fully elapsed and expired; that all claims filed against this said estate have been paid; that any and all claims against this said estate not filed and allowed and paid herein should be, and the same hereafter are, forever, barred. That under the last will and testament of Marcus Starkey, deceased, a specific gift and bequest of the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) each was made to Florence S. Starkey, adopted daughter; Lillian Spivey Starkey, adopted daughter; and Ada Bennett, a niece. That such bequests have been paid in full by such executor as evidenced by receipts on file. That under the last will and testament of Marcus Starkey, deceased, a specific bequest of the sum of $500.00 was made to Evelyn M. Silver, adopted daughter of the deceased, to satisfy an obligation of the said Evelyn M. Silver to the deceased. That the executor has satisfied such obligation the sum of $500.00, leaving a balance of such obligation of the sum of one thousand four hundred and seventy-five dollars ($1,475.00).

That all of the personal property owned by the deceased at the time of her death has been converted into cash and that there now remains in his hands, on account of the estate, as set forth herein, the sum of six thousand four hundred and twenty-seven and 77/100 dollars ($6,427.77). That in addition to the cash on hand there remains in the hands of the executor the receipted Evelyn M. Silver covering a $5,000.00 advancement made to her by the deceased, and upon which the Court finds there is due to her of one thousand four hundred and seventy-five dollars ($1,475.00), which a total of cash, plus the obligation of Evelyn M. Silver of one thousand four hundred and forty-seven and 77/100 dollars ($6,447.77).

That the deceased at the time of her death, was the owner of the following described real estate, located in the Village of 1901