

of the time and place fixed by the Court for filing claims against the estate of the deceased, that the time so fixed has fully expired and that all persons having claims against the estate and not filed within the time limited by the Court are forever barred and excluded from setting up or asserting any such claim; that all claims filed against the estate, all funeral expenses and the costs of these proceedings have been paid.

The Court further finds that the estate of the deceased is not subject to an inheritance tax under the laws of the State of Nebraska nor to a federal estate tax under the laws of the United States; that the only real estate involved has been sold and that the total aggregate value of the estate is less than the exemptions and that the appointment of an appraiser is not deemed necessary in this case.

The Court further finds that the said Anna Schobel, deceased, was possessed of real estate described as the Southerly One-Half (S ½) of that certain full Lot composed of Fractional Lot Five (5) in Fractional Block Thirteen (13) in Hollins' Addition and its Complement, to-wit: Fractional Lot Five (5) in Fractional Block Twenty-Three (23) in Wallichs' Addition, both being Additions to the City of Grand Island, Hall County, Nebraska.

The Court further finds that the said Anna Schobel left surviving her at the time of her death the following heirs at law and her only heirs at law, and both of whom are of legal age, viz: Helen Marth, daughter, and Olga Yagge, daughter; that the said Anna Schobel was a widow at the time of her death; that the real estate heretofore described passed and descended upon the death of the said Anna Schobel an undivided one-half interest therein to Helen Marth, and an undivided one-half interest therein to Olga Yagge.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that the Final Report of the said Helen Marth and Olga Yagge, Administratrices of the estate of Anna Schobel, deceased, be and the same hereby is in all things approved and allowed as and for their Final Report, and that said estate is hereby settled and closed and the Administratrices discharged and the sureties on their bond as such released from further liability.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that all persons having claims against the estate, if any such there be and not filed within the time allowed
