

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF
 FREDERICK HERBERT COLWELL, DECEASED.

FINAL DECREE

Now on this 7th day of January, 1953, this cause came on for hearing upon the Final Report filed herein by Hazel F. Huston, Administratrix of said estate and upon her Petition for approval and allowance of said report, settlement of said estate, determination of heirs, and her discharge herein; and the court having examined the records and being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That Hazel F. Huston, daughter of the deceased, filed a Petition in this court on June 21, 1952, which was filed by all of the children, alleged among other things that Frederick Herbert Colwell died in testate on June 16, 1952; that at the time of his death he was a resident of said county and state and the owner of an estate to be administered in said county; that the Petition prayed that Hazel F. Huston be appointed Administratrix of said estate; that upon reading said Petition and taking evidence thereon, an order was entered fixing the time and place for hearing the evidence in support of said Petition; that notice of said hearing was given to all interested parties by publishing said notice for 3 successive weeks in the Grand Island Daily Independent, a legal newspaper published and circulated in said county; that said hearing was had as by law required; that letters of administration were granted to Hazel F. Huston, upon the filing of her bond in this court, as by law required.

The Court further finds that due and legal notice has been given to all persons of the time and place fixed by the court for the filing of claims against the estate, by publication for 3 successive weeks in the Grand Island Daily Independent, that all persons having claims against said estate, not filed within the time fixed by said court, if any such there be, should be forever barred, excluded, and enjoined from setting up and asserting any claims against said estate.

The court further finds that the deceased, at the time of his death, left no widow, she having pre-deceased him; that he left as his heirs at law and only heirs at law and next of kin, the following:

Katie L. Moore, daughter, North Platte, Nebraska,
 Hazel F. Huston, daughter, Grand Island, Nebraska,
 F. Herbert Colwell, son, Trenton, New Jersey,
 Frances Tribus Pearson, daughter, Grand Island, Nebraska,

all of legal age.
