That the court has been shown by all persons at the time of the filing of the complaint for probate of the will, that the publication of such notice for 3 successive days in the Grand Island Daily Independent, as by law required, was no longer necessary to object to said report and the court, after examining the same finds that the report is true and correct in all respects and should be adopted and allowed; that said estate is duly settled and disposed of and administratrix should be discharged from her official bond.

The Court further finds that there are additional expenses of 4.00 expended for death certificates which should be allowed; that the attorneys fee is set in the amount of 750.14.

The Court further finds that all other claims against said estate have been paid to the Master's office; that the Appraiser for inheritance tax purposes, appointed by the court, has reported that the estate is not subject to the payment of any inheritance tax under the laws of the State of Nebraska or the United States.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED by the court that any and all persons having claims against said estate not filed and allowed within the time fixed by the court, if any such there be, are forever barred; that the estate is not subject to the payment of any inheritance tax under the laws of the State of Nebraska or the United States.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED by the court that the following names are the heirs at law and only heirs at law and next of kin
