

being as shown opposite his name:

Basine T. Dean, son,

That the deceased died intestate and that by operation of the intestate laws of the State of Nebraska the above described real estate did pass and descend to the heir of the deceased as shown opposite his name:

Basine T. Dean, son, the entire fee simple title that the interest of said person in the entire lot Five (5) in Block Seven (7) in the Original Town of Denihan, Hall County, Nebraska, is as follows:

Basine T. Dean, son, the entire fee simple title that more than two years have elapsed since the death of the deceased and no administrator has been appointed for her estate in Nebraska; that no claims have been filed against said estate and if there be any claims outstanding, the same are barred by operation of law.

The Court finds that the value of the above described real estate is not sufficient to warrant its assessment of any inheritance tax whatever. Accordingly, no appraisal for inheritance tax purposes will be made.

That no persons interested in this estate are in the Military Service of the United States or any of its allies nor have any such persons been notified to appear for such service nor are any such persons eligible for such service.
