

18. The said Joseph A. Sleuman was also known as Joseph Sleuman and as Joe Sleuman and the names refer to one and the same individual, notwithstanding the discrepancy in names.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT, that:

1. The final account of Frank Bowden, executor, is hereby settled, allowed and approved as filed.

2. The report of the appraiser is hereby approved, and this estate is subject to Nebraska State Inheritance Taxes as therein set forth, which taxes shall be collected from the respective persons liable for the same.

3. The executor shall pay the expenses of administration, court costs, attorneys and executor's fees, and make the distributions as set forth in the findings above.

4. Joseph A. Sleuman died testate, a resident of Hall County, Nebraska, on June 18, 1962, his last will and two codicils were duly admitted to probate herein, and his sole and only heirs-at-law, legatees and devisees were and are the persons set forth in the findings above.

5. All claims against this estate have been paid, settled and satisfied, and all funeral expenses have been paid in full.

6. The executor should refund to Leo F. Bowden and Margaret Bowden the amounts heretofore collected from them, less the Nebraska State Inheritance taxes due from them, and should cancel and return their note and release their mortgage.

7. The real property above described, namely, Lot One (1), in Block Nine (9), in the Original Village of Doniphan, Hall County, Nebraska, was owned in fee simple title by the said Joseph A. Sleuman at the time of his death, and said property is hereby assigned to Charlotte E. Adams, and the executor shall deliver over to her the buildings thereon and all personal effects, household goods, home furnishings and home appliances therein contained at the date of Joseph E. Sleuman's death.

8. The residue of the estate shall be delivered over to Charlotte E. Adams, Georgia M. Bowden, Minnie Harrell Brewer Schmidt and Floyd Harrell, equally.
