

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF HALL COUNTY, NEBRASKA

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF :

EDWARD BAASCH, DECEASED :

DECREES

NOW on this 6th day of May, 1953, this matter came on for hearing upon the final report filed herein by Lina Baasch, the duly appointed, qualified and acting executrix of said estate, and upon application for the approval and allowance of said report, settlement of said estate, determination of the heirs and her discharge herein, and the Court being fully advised in the matter finds as follows:

That Edward Baasch departed this life on the 16th day of October, 1952 a resident and inhabitant and owning real and personal property in Hall County, Nebraska and that he was a bona-fide resident of Hall County, Nebraska with his usual place of residence therein at the time of his death; that he left a last will and testament wherein Lina Baasch was appointed executrix and that thereafter a petition was filed herein praying for the probate of said will by the said Lina Baasch; that upon reading and filing said petition an order was entered fixing the time and place for hearing the evidence in support of said petition, giving notice thereof to all interested parties by publication of the same for three successive weeks in the Grand Island Daily Independent, a legal newspaper published and circulated in said County, as by law required; and that letters of administration were granted to the said Lina Baasch on the filing of her bond in this Court and the same being approved, as by law required.

That thereafter, notice was served upon the County Attorney of Hall County, Nebraska for the purpose of determining whether or not there is any inheritance tax due the State of Nebraska or any estate tax due the United States of America and the Court having examined the records and files finds that said estate is of less value than the statutory exemptions provided by law for the heirs and devisees and that said estate was free and clear from any inheritance tax due and owing by said estate or any person inheriting by, through or under said last will and testament, which said report was duly approved by the Court.

That due and legal notice has been given to all persons of the time and place fixed by the Court for filing claims against said estate by publishing the same for three successive weeks in the Grand Island Daily Independent, a legal newspaper, as by law required, and that all persons having any claims against said estate not filed within the time fixed by the Court, if any such there be, should be forever barred, excluded and enjoined from setting up or asserting any such claims against said estate and that all claims on file have been paid and receipts deposited with said Court.

That said deceased departed this life leaving as his sole and only heirs at law, legatees, devisees and other persons entitled to share in his said estate the following: Lina Baasch, widow, Grand Island, Nebraska; Albert W. Baasch, son, Grand Island, Nebraska; Lillian Scheel, daughter, Grand Island, Nebraska, and Ilo Mae Brown, daughter, Omaha, Nebraska, all over the age of 21 years.

The Court further finds that said deceased died the owner of the following described real estate, to-wit:

Lot Three (3), Block Seven (7), Windolph's Addition to the City of Grand Island, Hall County, Nebraska, owned jointly with Lina Baasch, widow and executrix herein, with right of survivorship, and

Lot Seven (7), Block Twenty-eight (28), Wasmer's Addition to the City of Grand Island, Hall County, Nebraska, owned jointly with Lina Baasch, widow and executrix herein, with right of survivorship, and
