

time and upon such terms and in such manner as to him shall seem meet. I further direct and request that he be allowed to qualify and serve as such Executor without giving any bond or security whatsoever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand at Denver, Colorado this 9th day of June, A. D. 1936.

Harriet S. Jordan

The above instrument composed of two sheets of legal paper, written in double entry, was this 9th day of June, A. D. 1936, signed and published by Harriet S. Jordan, as her last will and testament in the joint presence of the undersigned, the said Harriet S. Jordan then and there being of sound mind and memory and free from all constraint; whereupon we, being without interest in the matter other than friendship, and being well acquainted with her, immediately subscribed our names hereto, in the presence of each other and in the presence of the testatrix for the purpose of attesting the will as she requested us to do.
