8. That on the 30th day of January A. D. 1953, appraisal and assessment of said inheritance taxes was duly made and apportioned to each of said counties and filed and copies delivered to all parties and showing a total inheritance tax in the amount of $5845.49.

9. That on the 25th day of February A. D. 1953, the administratrices filed final report and account of their administration and petition for final settlement, and order was made for final hearing thereon on the 19th day of March A. D. 1953 at ten o'clock A. M. and notice thereof be given by publication for three weeks in the Hastings Daily Tribune a legal newspaper published and in general circulation in said County.

10. That on the 19th day of March A. D. 1953, at ten o'clock A. M. it appearing that notice of final hearing was duly published as ordered by this court in the Hastings Daily Tribune on the 26th day of February A. D. 1953, and on the 5th and 12th days of March A. D. 1953, and said final hearing was by the Court duly continued and adjourned to the 15th day of April A. D. 1953 at ten o'clock A. M.

And now on this 15th day of April A. D. 1953 at ten o'clock A. M. the administratrices file herein their supplemental report and account to this date, and hearing is duly had, and the court finds that Betty Ann Eckhardt one of the administratrices has since married and her name is now Betty Ann Eckhardt-Peck, and that she should be allowed for her services herein the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00), and that the attorney herein, John E. Willits, should be allowed and paid a reasonable amount for his services in the sum of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7500.00), and that the balance of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) of the court costs should be paid, and all of which said amounts should be paid by said administratrices, and thereupon the same was so paid and vouchers showing such payments filed herein, and the court further finds that all inheritances taxes as assessed have been paid and vouchers by said County Treasurers of each of said counties have been filed herein showing such payments, and that said administratrices have duly accounted for all the property of said estate, and have made returns and paid all income taxes and all estate taxes as shown by said returns to be due to the Treasury Department of the United States, and have filed United States Fiduciary Report, and return of estate taxes to the State of Nebraska showing nothing due, and the court further finds that there remains certain real property and personal property and which was in the name of Henry O. Eckhardt alone and which is set forth and appears in their report and accounts filed herein, and that said Henry O. Eckhardt departed this life on the 7th day of April A. D. 1952 in the City of Hastings, Adams County, Nebraska, where he had resided for many years, and he left no last will and testament, and he left surviving him Anna Eckhardt, his wife, age 73, and their only child, Rudolph Edward Eckhardt, a son, age 44, and they are the sole and only persons having interests in his estate under the laws of descent of property under the laws of the State of Nebraska, and the title in and to said remaining property descended to and vested in said Anna Eckhardt and said Rudolph Edward Eckhardt, and to each an undivided one-half thereof, and all debts and claims against said estate together with the reasonable and necessary expenses of last illness, funeral and burial and costs and expenses of administration have been paid in full, and the court further finds that said Henry O. Eckhardt and his said wife, Anna Eckhardt, at the time of his death and for many years had resided, occupied and maintained their home on North Thirty Feet of Lot 24 of Cole's Subdivision of Block 12 of Cole's Addition to the City of Hastings, Adams County, Nebraska, and said Anna Eckhardt, now his widow is entitled to have set off to her a life estate therein, in addition to the fee simple title to an undivided one half thereof, and to the use and occupation of said home as long and she lives.