IN THE COUNTY COURT OF HALL COUNTY, NEBRASKA

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF I

HELEN I. HAYES, DECRASED

DECREE

NOW on this than day of July 1953 this cause came on for hearing upon the final report filed herein by Evelyn J. Desch, administratrix of the estate of Helen I. Hayes, deceased, and upon the approval and allowance of said report, settlement of said estate and her discharge, and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds as follows:

That Helen I. Hayes departed this life on the 4th day of December, 1952 a resident and inhabitant of Hall County, Nebraska and was the owner of an estate to be administered in said County; that Evelyn J. Desch filed her petition in this Court on the 2 th day of December, 1952 praying for administration of said estate; that upon reading and filing said petition, an order was entered fixing the time and place for hearing the evidence in support of said petition, giving notice thereof to all interested parties by publication of said notice for three successive weeks in the Grand Island Daily Independent, a legal newspaper published and circulated in said County, as by law required, and letters of administration were granted to said administratix upon the filing of her bond in this Court and the same being approved, as by law required.

That due and legal notice has been given to all persons of the time and clace fixed by the Court for filing claims against said estate by publishing the same for three successive weeks in the grand Island Daily Independent, a legal newspaper, as by law squired, and that all persons having claims against said estate, not filed within the time fixed by the Court, if any such there be, are forever tarred, excluded and enjoined from setting up or asserting any such claims against said estate.

That said deceased departed this life a widow, leaving her surviving as her heirs at law and only heirs at law, legatees, devisees and persons entitled to share in her said estate the following: Marion K. Hayes, a daughter, Grand Island, Nebraska, and Evelyn J. Desch, a daughter, Grand Island, Mebraska, both over the age of 21 years.

The Court further finds that said deceased died the owner of the following described real estate, to-wit:

Lot Five (5), Block beventy-six (76), Original Town now City of Grand Island, Hall County, Nebraska and personal property as set out in the inventory filed berein, which said personal property has been properly distributed among the heirs, as by law provided, and that said real estate did pass and descend to darion K. Hayes and Evelyn J. Desch, each an undivided one-half interest therein, in fee simple title.

The Court further finds that due and legal notice has been given to all persons of the time and place for he ring on said final report by publication of said notice for three successive weeks in the Grand Island Daily Independent, a legal newspaper, as by law required, and no one appearing to object to said report and the Court having examined the same, together with the vouchers and receipts thereto attached, finds that said report is true and correct, in all things, and should be approved and allowed as and for said administratrix's final report; that, there is no inheritance tax due the State of Nebraska or the United States of America under the Inheritance Tax laws, said heirs each having exemptions greater in amount than the value of said estate and that said estate should be settled and the administratrix and her official bondsman released and discharged of any further liabilities herein.
