

of January, 1953, at 10 o'clock a.m., in the County Court Room in said County as the time and place for hearing said petition, proving said Will and Codicil thereto, and admitting the same to probate and ordering that notice of the pendency of said petition and hearing thereon be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing said notice in the Grand Island Independent, a legal newspaper printed in said County for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing, and it appears by proof on file that notice of said order was so given.

THIRD

The Court further finds that on the 26th day of January, 1953, said instruments were proven, allowed and admitted to probate as the Last Will and Testament and Codicil thereto of said Mattie Stromer, deceased, which Last Will and Testament and Codicil thereto are in words as follows:

" LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Mattie Stromer, of Grand Island, Nebraska, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this my Last will and Testament in words as follows:

1.

I hereby appoint my daughter Caroline Kosal, Executrix of this Will and provide that she need give no surety on her bond as such.

2.

I hereby direct my said Executrix to pay out of my estate, all of my just debt, including expenses of my last illness and burial, and also direct her to complete inscription on my headstone now at my late husband's grave in Clay County, Nebraska, and pay the expenses thereof out of my estate.

3.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate of every nature whatsoever and wheresoever situated, I hereby devise share and share alike to those of my five children living at the time of my death, namely: Bertie Weinger, Richard Stromer, Caroline Kosal, Ray Stromer and Lavera May Kerr; it being my express intention that should any of my said five children precede me in death, that share which would otherwise pass to their heirs, shall lapse and my estate only be divided into as many equal parts as there are children of mine living at the time of my death.

I hereby expressly revoke any and all former Wills by me made.

Done at Grand Island, Nebraska, this 23rd day of March, 1948.
