be given to all persons interested in said cause by publishing said notice in the Grand Island Independent, a legal newspaper printed in said County, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing, and it appears by proof on file that notice of said order was given as ordered by this Court.

THIRD

The Court further finds that Rubie E. Bancroft named in said petition was, upon her giving bond in the sum of $1,000 as ordered by this Court, appointed Administratrix as prayed; the Court further finds that the deceased at the time of her death, was a widow, and that she left the following heirs-at-law;

Blanche E. Jackson, and Rubie E. Bancroft, her daughters, both of whom are over the age of twenty-one years.

FOURTH

That on the 16th day of March, 1953, an order was made herein allowing creditors three months from and after the 8th day of April, 1953, in which to file their claims against said estate and said Administratrix one year in which to settle said estate, and further ordering that a notice to creditors be published in the Grand Island Independent, a legal newspaper published and circulating in Hall County, Nebraska, for three successive weeks prior to the 8th day of April, 1953, and that a hearing on claims filed against said estate would be held at the office of the County Judge of Hall County, Nebraska, on July 10, 1953, at 9 o'clock a.m., and it appears by proof on file that notice of said order was published as ordered by this Court.

FIFTH

The Court further finds that on the 24th day of March, 1953, said Rubie E. Bancroft, as Administratrix, filed in this Court her inventory with a copy thereof for the County Assessor of Hall County, Nebraska, of the property of said estate, and that according to said inventory, the deceased died seized and possessed of the following described property, to-wit:

An undivided one-fourth interest in and to Lot
Nine (9) in Block Thirty (30) of Russel Wheeler's Addition in the City of Grand Island, Hall County, Nebraska,

and chattel property of the value of $231.92.

SIXTH

The Court further finds that according to the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Nebraska, said property descends as follows: An undivided one-half thereof to Blanche E. Jackson, and the other undivided one-half thereof to Rubie E. Bancroft.
