

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Dotter Stalk, at this time residing in Hall County, in the State of Nebraska, being of sound mind, do hereby publish this, my last will and testament, thereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

FIRST.

I direct that all just claims filed against my estate and all expenses incurred during my last illness and of my burial be paid out of the personal property belonging to me not hereinafter specifically bequeathed.

SECOND.

I give and bequeath to my son, Alton B. Stalk, all of my machinery, of whatever kind and whatever situated, belonging to me at the time of my death, to be his absolutely.

I further give and bequeath to my son, Alton B. Stalk, all and every share of stock issued to me and belonging to me in any co-operative concern of mine, including co-operative concerns in the electric and gas business, the cream and food co business, and any other co-operative enterprise.

THIRD.

I direct my executors, hereinafter named, to sell all my real estate, to wit: my farm, after my death, and to pay to my son, Alton B. Stalk, the proceeds of the sale of the same, less the expenses of the sale, and to pay and discharge the same to my son, Alton B. Stalk, absolutely.

I give and bequeath to my son, Alton B. Stalk, the sum of $100.00, to be paid to him by my executors, as follows: $50.00 to be paid to him at my death, and the balance of $50.00 to be paid to him at the expiration of one year after my death.

It is my intention that the provision herein made for my son, Alton B. Stalk, be to be an amount in addition to the property bequeathed to him in Paragraph Second hereof.

FOURTH.

I give and bequeath to my wife, Stella Stalk, to be hers absolutely, all of the rest, residue and remainder of the personal property belonging to me and remaining after Paragraphs First, Second and Third
