

to the City of Grand Island, Hall County, Nebraska, is the homestead of Flora B. Boyll, and the same has heretofore been assigned to her and she is the owner of said Lot Fourteen (14).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that all claims filed against said estate have been paid; that if there are any outstanding claims the same are forever barred and precluded; that the funeral expenses and the expenses of last illness have been paid, together with the court costs herein, and that there remains nothing in the hands of the administratrix for distribution; that the estate was not subject to inheritance tax under the laws of the State of Nebraska.

IT IS THEREFORE, FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that the money received from the claim against the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland has been distributed to Flora B. Boyll and to the Estate of Maude B. Boyll, deceased; that there is no property in the hands of the administratrix for distribution; that the above estate is closed and settled and that the bond of the said administratrix is hereby released.

Charles D. Smith COUNTY JUDGE.
