

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF
JOHN H. HOLDEN

I, John H. Holden, 1836 West 11th Avenue, Grand Island, Nebraska, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament.

I.

I direct that my just debts, funeral expenses, and expenses of my last illness, if any, be first paid by my executors hereinafter named.

II.

I direct that the same of my estate, debts and the rest of my property, after payment of my just debts, be divided and shared among my children in equal shares
to-wit: Elvira E. Holden, Willie E. Holden, John E. Holden, Holley, David L. Holden, Lawrence L. Holden, and Elizabeth L. Holden, they share equally.

And I direct that my children shall have no interest in my real estate, but that the same shall be sold and the proceeds shared among my children in equal shares.

I direct that in the event of the death of any of my children, my children in later years and their heirs shall have no interest in my real estate, but that the same shall be sold and the proceeds shared among my children in equal shares. I refer to the will of my late wife, Mary Holden, with reference to a share of my real estate, the same of the children I will have no interest in my real estate, but that the same shall be sold and the proceeds shared among my children in equal shares.

I hereby name, nominate and appoint my son, David L. Holden, as executor and my daughter, Willie E. Holden as executrix of this my last Will and Testament. In the event of the death of either of them, the surviving one shall act as sole executor or executrix of my will.
